1

Ask for time to consider the offer

This will give you time to plan next steps. A few days should do it.

2

Set your walk-away number

What's the absolute minimum salary you'll accept for this job?

3

Determine your counter offer

Slightly overshoot their top line. 10-20% will usually do the trick.

4

Write your counter offer email

Include your counter offer amount and a brief summary of your case.

5

Prioritize your non-salary benefits

What's most important to you? Vacation, signing bonus, equity?

6

Script your Final Discussion

Plan for each response you'll get from their offer and your counter.
